

"Fresh and Original"

New River Line is just such a band...

Eastern Kentucky is known throughout the world as the home of authentic Bluegrass Music, and rightly so. It's not just a pass time, nor business to those who dwell in it's beautiful hills, it's a passion and a way of life. For those reasons, the band New River Line was formed in late 2003 with the mission of bringing it's own flavor of music to audiences world wide, while still remaining true to the very steeped tradition that the music holds. New River Line authors much of their own material, which speaks of true life experiences, both good and bad, but also mixes in classic bluegrass tunes that listeners have grown to love and expect. New River Line's latest album entitled "Chasing My Dreams" served as somewhat of a introduction of the band to the Bluegrass radio world. The true to life, country living ballad "Scorcher Carroll's Farm" was voted as The #1 Song on the Americas Bluegrass Charts for the year 2007.

New River Line, an energetic group based out of central Kentucky region, provides a blend of traditional, gospel, contemporary and classic bluegrass music filled with pure vocals and intense instrumentation.

Dave Carroll – guitar, vocals ♦ Adam Collingsworth – mandolin, vocals ♦ Jerry Chaney – dobro, vocals
Chad Gilbert - bass ♦ Johnny Branham – banjo, vocals

"What a great collection of original music from a group of great song writers and musicians. It doesn't get much better than this!"

Lou Reid

"Great songs, singing and picking, New River Line has it all.

Definitely a band to watch."

Tim Stafford
