"I'm Moving On" contains 12 tracks of original material mostly written by guitarist Dave Carroll, with one co-written with mandolin player Adam Collinsworth and an instrumental written by banjo player Johnny Branham. Resonaphonic guitarist Jerry Wayne Chaney sings lead on a couple tracks, including the title track "I'm Moving On", with his wife Kim Chaney contributing backup vocals on one track, "Forever Till The End".

"I'm Moving On" was recorded at Jack's Tracks Studios in Lowmansville, KY, and produced by Dave Carroll, engineered by Jack Priode, mixed and mastered by Ron Stewart.

"This recording is terrific! It has all of the elements needed to make it a hit in the music world. Great instrumentation and singing by the guys, great songs, great studio sound, and not to mention that David Carroll is quickly becoming one of the finest songwriter's in our business as well. Good job fellows! This CD is a must for anyone's collection!!"
